

IPA Colombia launches partnership with the Bogota Department of Social Integration

On December 1st, IPA Colombia launched a partnership with the Bogota Department of Social Integration in order to develop a research agenda in 2017 around early childhood, homelessness, teenage pregnancy, and the elderly. The two organizations signed a Memorandum of Understanding in which they express their intention to work together in 2017.

December 01, 2016