IPA Philippines Holds Agribusiness Roundtable with the University of the Philippines Center for Integrative and Development Studies and the Office of the Vice President of the Philippines

On December 6, IPA Philippines partnered with the Office of the Vice President of the Republic of the Philippines (OVP) and the University of the Philippines Center for Integrative and Development Studies (UP CIDS). This event was attended by 12 key players and researchers in agribusiness to discuss linking small producers with supply chains and agribusiness models worth pursuing in the Philippine context. The event was conducted to help inform the design of OVP's Angat Buhay program. The event was held at the UP CIDS conference room at the Bahay ng Alumni, University of Philippines, Quezon City.
