

Published on Innovations for Poverty Action (<http://www.poverty-action.org>)

Home > Kyla Levin-Russell

Kyla Levin-RussellPeople

Programs Manager, Latin America
Programs

Kyla Levin-Russell provides oversight and support to IPA's projects and programs in Latin America, as well as leads IPA's sector working group in agriculture, IPA's policy initiative "One Project at a Time," and the Small and Medium Enterprise (SME) Program. Prior to joining IPA, she worked on research and policy related to gender-based violence in New York City, and in documentary film, exploring immigration issues and human rights along the U.S./Mexico border. Kyla has a MA in International Affairs from Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs, and a BA in Women's Studies and Hispanic Studies from Vassar College.

Copyright 2017 Innovations for Poverty Action | Privacy Policy | Legal Disclosures | IPA Staff | Press

Innovations for Poverty Action (IPA) is registered as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Contributions to IPA are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law. IPA's tax identification number is 06-1660068.
