IPA's Third Annual Researcher Gathering on Financial Inclusion and Social Protection

Innovations for Poverty Action (IPA), with co-organizer the Buffett Institute's Global Poverty Research Lab (GPRL), hosted its Third Annual Researcher Gathering to bring together researchers in financial inclusion and social protection for a two-day event at Northwestern University. At the meeting, researchers informally discussed research in financial inclusion and household finance in the United States and around the world. Researchers also shared new research on social safety nets, cash transfers, targeting, and livelihood development.
