

Article Link

<https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-6492645/Cashing-Nearly-Americans-week-...>

IPA's Rebecca Rouse in The Daily Mail on Why More Low-Income Americans Live Unbanked

IPA's Financial Inclusion Program Director, Rebecca Rouse, explains why many lower-income Americans live unbanked, without a checking or savings account. They are also more likely to rely on making payments in cash than middle-income and wealthier Americans who increasingly prefer to go cashless.

January 04, 2019