

Article Link

<https://www.economist.com/asia/2021/09/11/a-big-study-in-bangladesh-finds-simpl...>

In The Economist, Results of Bangladesh Study on Mask Use

The Economist features a study in Bangladesh on the impact of promoting and facilitating mask-wearing to prevent transmission of COVID-19. In this program, increased mask use (particularly of surgical masks) reduced symptomatic infections. Similar interventions are being scaled up across South Asia, a region has been hit hard by the virus.

September 30, 2021