

Staff

Nassreena Sampaco-Baddiri
Country Director, Philippines

Date

July 07, 2022

Policy Insights for More Efficient and Adaptive Social Protection in the Philippines

On July 7, 2022, IPA Philippines held a virtual knowledge exchange to share PIDS and World Bank studies on social protection. The event highlighted lessons on what works and what needs to be fine-tuned and provides policy insights on strengthening social protection to make it more efficient and adaptive in the Philippines. For more information, see the event poster below.

Philippine Institute for Development Studies

THE WORLD BANK
IBRD • IDA | WORLD BANK GROUP

Policy Insights for More Efficient and Adaptive Social Protection in the Philippines

Virtual Knowledge Exchange

July 7, 2022 9:30am-12pm PST

zoom <https://bit.ly/SocialP22>

LIVE facebook.com/WorldBankPhilippines facebook.com/PIDS.PH

twitter.com/PIDS_PH

PRESENTATION

Social Protection in the Philippines: Insights and Lessons from PIDS Studies
Aniceto Orbeta Jr.
President
Philippine Institute for Development Studies

COVID-19 and Social Assistance in the Philippines: Lessons for Future Resilience
Yoonyoung Cho
Senior Economist - Social Protection and Jobs Global Practice
World Bank

PANEL DISCUSSION

Rhea Peñaflor
Assistant Secretary for Specialized Programs
Department of Social Welfare and Development

Nassreena Sampaco-Baddiri
Country Director
Innovations for Poverty Action - Philippines

Jaime Aristotle Alip
Founder and Chair
Center for Agriculture and Rural Development
Mutually-Reinforcing Institutions

Moderator: Michael Abrigo
Senior Research Fellow
Philippine Institute for Development Studies

OPENING REMARKS

Marife Ballesteros
Vice President
Philippine Institute for Development Studies

CLOSING REMARKS

Ronald Mutasa
Practice Leader for Human Development
(Brunei, Malaysia, Philippines and Thailand)
World Bank

City

Online

Country

Philippines