Consent

Read: Thank you for confirming that you are the person I am seeking. As I mentioned, I am from IPA, an organization that was established by the research team who formerly worked with ICS on health and education projects in Kenya. I am working with a research team from the University of California, Berkeley, in the United States. We would like speak to you today to discuss your potential participation in a new research study.

We are studying the effectiveness of the ICS deworming project that went on in primary schools in Busia County beginning in 1998. We hope to better understand the long-term effects of ICS's work on deworming and health, and in particular, we are interested in effects on young children of individuals who attended schools in that area in 1998. We are contacting many individuals who were enrolled in classes 2 through 7 in the primary school you attended in 1998.

Let me briefly tell you what your participation will entail.

You are freely providing consent for Innovations for Poverty Action (“IPA”) to collect, process and transfer your sensitive personal data and personal data (“data”). In doing so, IPA commits to comply with the principles of data protection set forth in the Kenya Data Protection Act, 2019. We would like to inform you that you have the right: 1) to be informed on IPA’s use of your data, 2) access your data that IPA holds, 3) to request IPA update, correct, or delete my data, or opt-out at any time.

In this survey, IPA will collect, process, store and may transfer the following data of yours inside or outside Kenya including:

1. Your information; Name, contact details, gender.
2. Background of the household
3. Information on digital credit
4. Consumption expenditure
5. Economic Activity
6. Mental Health and wellbeing, and
7. Care taking

If currently married: We would also like to separately talk to your current spouse to ask him/her some of these questions if that is okay with you.

IPA may transfer your data inside or outside Kenya including:

- All the data points listed above will be shared with the study researchers from the University of California, Berkeley and the University of California, Berkeley’s Center for Effective Global Action (CEGA). These parties will be responsible for data analysis in a bid to understand the impact of the KLPS’s interventions on health and education.
- Innovations for Poverty Action – United States (IPA-US): IPA-US will access the data points as they will be responsible for ensuring the data is stored in a secure storage and ensuring all data recipients have data security standards similar to those of IPA before the data is transferred.

When IPA collects, stores, processes, and transfers your data, IPA uses Boxcryptor software and limits access to your personal data on a need-to-know basis. When IPA transfers your data to a third-party, IPA ensures the recipient will have similar security standards to IPA.

If at any time you would like to withdraw consent, know how your data is being used, receive a copy of, update, correct, change, or delete your data, you may contact IPA through the contacts provided below. Your data will be retained as long as reasonably necessary for the Project. Afterwards, IPA will either delete your data or anonymize or de-identify (remove personal identifiers from) your data, in a manner to ensure you are no longer identifiable.

Disclosure of your data is voluntary. If you do not wish to provide data, you will not be eligible to participate in this Study/Project.

By providing this consent, you acknowledge that you are at least 18 years of age/or older.

This consent shall not be construed as an offer of employment or imply any rights except as explicitly stated. This consent shall not be construed in any way to provide rights in excess of those prescribed under the Kenya Data Privacy Act, 2019 and subsequent interpretation or regulations.
